

Job Posting	HEAD GOLF PROFESSIONAL
Club	WASCANA COUNTRY CLUB
Location	REGINA, SASKATCHEWAN
Start Date	JANUARY 1, 2012

Overview

For over a century, the Wascana Country Club has been an integral part of Regina, proving itself as a haven for some of the city's best, and most discriminating golfers. Since the doors first opened in 1911, 'The Wascana' has evolved into one of Saskatchewan's premier golf courses and the city's only elite, private club. The management team and the entire staff, led by General Manager Greg Dukart, is committed to delivering exceptional experiences to the members and their guests. The membership, which includes a healthy waiting list, expects quality products and services, and the staff are provided with the tools and opportunities that are necessary to achieve this result.

The Position

The Head Golf Professional is responsible for all aspects of the golf operations, which includes areas such as the golf shop, cart storage and practice facility. He or she manages and delivers above and beyond services to the membership such as retail sales, club events, instruction and other duties. This individual hires, trains and leads their team to be exceptional, dedicated and passionate about the Wascana experience. Most importantly, the Head Golf Professional delivers this premier country club experience within clear and established financial parameters and objectives.

The Candidate

The successful candidate has a minimum two years experience in a similar role. He or she is committed to leading-edge thinking and is passionate about the continual improvement of themselves, of their team and of achieving their business objectives. The individual will be extremely competent at managing relationships, such as with members, staff and suppliers. They will have a passion for people and be an excellent communicator. As a member of the Canadian PGA the candidate understands the benefits of golf as 'a game of a lifetime' and their role as an ambassador for growing the game in the community.

The Opportunity

This is an exceptional opportunity for the right candidate who is seeking a long-term career in a senior management role at one of Canada's premier clubs. The compensation package will provide a very rewarding lifestyle, and includes a salary, bonus and other benefits and perks.
