

James Cronk - Bio

For the past twenty-five years James Cronk has been passionately committed to helping organizations get their people, and their customers, powered on. Whether as a theatre producer, golf professional or small business owner, his success as a manager and leader is evident in the recognitions bestowed upon himself and his teams; three times (and in two different industries) his organization has been recognized as one of the 'Top Ten Employers' in British Columbia, Canada; the readers of Golf Digest, the golf industry's foremost authority, recognized his facility as having the '5th Best Customer Service in North America'. Among his personal recognitions; 'Top 40 Business Persons under 40' and 'Top 20 Most Influential People in Golf in Canada'. His company, CRONK GROUP, uses a unique blend of creativity, experience and proven systems to help organizations achieve their goals and increase their profits by improving their systems, their service and their people! For more information visit www.cronkgroup.com.

